Law firm ranking “Kanzleimonitor 2021/2022”: 130 in-house lawyers recommend Luther

Cologne – The German law firm ranking "Kanzleimonitor" has been published again this year. Around 860 in-house lawyers were asked about their satisfaction in working with legal advisors. The results speak for themselves:

Luther is recommended in a total of 22 areas of law – particularly in employment law, energy law and corporate law. Luther achieved a top 5 ranking in each of these areas. In the overall ranking, Luther received 130 recommendations: once again more recommendations than in the previous year.

Employment lawyer and Luther partner Paul Schreiner was recommended across all fields of law and is considered one of the TOP100 lawyers in Germany. Fifteen other Luther partners were also commended in their respective areas of expertise:

- Michael Rath
- Dietmar Heise
- Robert von Steinau-Steinrück
- Hans-Christian Ackermann
- Christian Kuß
- Eberhard Kalbfleisch
- Marc Peters
- Elisabeth Lepique
- Oliver Krall
- Ulrich Philippi
- Jörgen Tielmann
- Kay Oelschlägel
- Anne Wegner
- Sebastian Janka
- Richard Happ

About the law firm ranking “Kanzleimonitor”

The publisher of the study, which has been published annually since 2013, is the Deutsches Institut für Rechtsabteilungen und Unternehmensjuristen GmbH (diruj) – part of the dfv Mediengruppe. Together with the magazine "unternehmensjurist", the study investigated which law firms and legal advisors are recommended by in-house lawyers. From March to July 2021, 860 companies from 29 sectors of the economy took part in the survey for the current edition of the Law Firm Monitor 2021/2022 and made 7,626 recommendations in 32 areas of law.
