Re-election of Managing Partners at Luther

Cologne - Luther's partners have re-elected Elisabeth Lepique and Dr. Markus Sengpiel as managing partners. From July 1, they will continue to jointly drive the development of the firm for the next four years.

Since 5 May 2018, it is certain: Luther will continue to be headed by the proven dual leadership. At the partner meeting, Luther's partnership re-elected Elisabeth Lepique and Dr. Markus Sengpiel as managing partners for the next four-year term of office, starting July 1, 2018.

"As a leading full-service law firm, we will focus even more on in-depth industry expertise and interdisciplinary teams in order to be a reliable partner for our clients," says Elisabeth Lepique. "Especially against the background of fundamental economic, technological and social changes, which also massively influence the business environment in almost all industries, a comprehensive and at the same time precise understanding of our clients' situation is getting more important".

"In addition to deepening market knowledge and expanding our international business, we are constantly exploring new opportunities to offer standardized services more efficiently," adds Dr. Markus Sengpiel. "In addition, we are specifically promoting the further training, networking and collaboration of our specialists. Even today, not only lawyers from very different legal fields work together in our projects, but also experts from our IT department, for example."
